

NJ Route 130: Adaptive Controlled Traffic Signal System Assessment

Advisor: Dr. Mohammad Jalayer

- In this engineering clinic, students will assess multiple measures of effectiveness of traffic mobility and safety including smooth flow, travel time reliability, congestion reliability, and intersection efficiency and corridor demand along NJ Route 130 corridor.
- Project funded by NJDOT/South State Inc.

Field Data Collection Required

